MR. BRYAN.

"I'd rather have Lincoln go for father than all the rest of the country put together."

These are Ruth Bryan Leavitt's sentiments as expressed after a careful scanning of the election returns, and, in fact, are those of the whole Bryan family. "Father elect like a baby Tuesday night," was Mrs. Leavitt's report of the way the candidate took his defeat.

Mr. Bryan told the newspaper men that he would rest at home for a few days, and was not prepared to say what his plans contemplated, beyond that. He declared, however, that his failure to be elected would make no difference as to the work he has been engaged in.

"Holding office has been an incident and not an object with me," he stated. "I had definite plans outlined before I ever went to Congress, and I have adhered to them at all times since. I could not get out of politics if I wanted to. I have been in politics as much when not a candidate as when I was, and as much when holding no office as when I was holding one."

A number of telegrams from personal and political friends from all over the country have reached Mr. Bryan. Some express condolence in defeat, while others felicitate him on the result in Nebraska. No word from Chairman Mack had reached Mr. Bryan up to yesterday evening.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels gently. Contains no opiates. It is pleasant to take, and children especially like the taste, so nearly like maple sugar. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

KILLED MOTHER AND HIMSELF

While Mrs. Rebecca Veit, a wealthy widow of New York, slept Tuesday night in her apartments in the aristocratic hotel Ansonia, her only son, J. Nelson Veit, aged 27, slipped into her bedroom and shot her twice, in the heart and in the brain. She died instantly, it is believed.

Then the matricide locked himself in a bath room, and after a deal of careful preparation killed himself by inhaling gas fumes. He was a member of the New York Stock Exchange, a member of several clubs and well known as a man-about-town. His friends and family think he was temporarily demented.

It developed after his death that he had been married for more than a year and that his wife has been living all this time only three blocks away from where the mother made her city home.

According to one account, Mrs. Veit did not know that her son was married. Another report has it that she did know of the marriage and that her refusal to meet her son's wife socially might have had something to do with his act.

Young Mrs. Veit said she was married to Veit on October 23, 1907. She had never met his mother. Her husband called her up Tuesday night, and told her he would stay down town late on account of the election. The next word she had of him was a telephone message telling her he had been shot at the Ansonia.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled in cases of weak back, backache, inflammation of the bladder, rheumatic pains, antiseptic and act promptly. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

RICHMOND "NEW PARTY."

In the leading editorial in the Richmond News Leader yesterday afternoon Alfred B. Williams casts Bryan, announcing that in the future the policy of the paper of adhering to the primary pledges required in Virginia will be abandoned, and simultaneously came the announcement that Henry W. Anderson, leader of the "Taft democrats" of Richmond, will organize compactly a party of independent democrats throughout the entire state.

Mr. Williams declares for independence of thought and action among democrats, and the tearing asunder of the shield of tradition which so long has caused Virginia democrats to vote for the party leader, irrespective of his qualifications for the office which he seeks.

This is in keeping with the announcement of Wyndham Meredith, also a leader of the Taft democratic faction, that the party of independents in this state will present an impregnable organization at the next presidential election.

Sick Headache.

This distressing disease results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at W. F. Creighton's or Richard Gibson's drug store and try it.

KILLED BY A WOMAN.

A. L. Miller, chief of police of Fairbanks, Alaska, was shot by Blanche Davis, at the Pioneer Hotel, Monday, and later died from his wounds. Chief Miller was breaking in the door of the woman's room in order to arrest her on the charge of insanity, sworn to by the proprietor of the hotel. Three shots were fired at him, only one of which was effective.

The woman is now in the federal jail. She says she has no recollection of the shooting.
